Analysis

In spite of the scores this is a nice match to watch as both players committed very few unforced errors. Nice demonstration of setting and spiking by Tuomas Kärki he was everything but lethargic out there. Nobody was expecting François to be part of this finals and he did well under the circumstances but his game was not aggressive enough as he kept the footbag just in front of him most of the times on his first touch whereas Tuomas was pushing his sets closer to the net for much more dangerous attacks. You can't win at this level by placing from mid-court.
